Alberto Kalach Jose Maria Buendia, one of architecture's few masters, made it very clear to whoever passed through his metaphysical classroom, that house, patio and garden are inseparable. In his classes he provocatively derided architectural masterworks for ignoring external space as part of the hellofromsandy.coms: 2.

This book brings together the most recent buildings and projects by the Mexican architect Alberto Kalach, special emphasis being placed on the first steps of the process of each of these.
