Providing easy-to-understand financial advice to teachers in the USA. From managing budgets and setting up investments, to healthcare and forging a new identity, life after teaching requires careful planning. The overall concern of teachers facing retirement is financial, according to Teacher Support Network research which shows that % of retired teachers who contacted the network were concerned about money matters.

Although often overlooked, financial planning for teachers is essential. Teachers are so busy with their students that they can neglect their own needs, such as their financial security. In today's world, that can be disastrous.
