Synopsis of the Four Gospels A synopsis is a tool which displays different passages of a text side by side for comparison. This is most commonly done with the four Gospels of the New Testament because of their similar material, but it could reasonably be done with any text that has similar passages, such as the Old Testament historical narratives. *THE FOUR GOSPELS. Background. The four Gospels record the eternal being, human ancestry, birth, life, and ministry, death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus the Christ, Son of God and Son of Man. Taken together they present not a biography but a Person. This is an excellent tool for studying the gospels in parallel. I got my copy from amazon, it was used, but in excellent condition, and it was pretty cheap. There are pericopes total, all pretty short, so it's perfect for walking through all four gospels in a year/5. We have four gospels because during the early church period, four people found it necessary to tell the story of Jesus from four different perspectives. Each gospel was written for a different (original) group of people, by a different author, who was trying to accomplish a different purpose.
